OUR SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

LaGrange High School is a 9-12 public high school located in the city of LaGrange, Troup County, Georgia, sixty miles southwest of Atlanta on Interstate 85. Troup County is a community of approximately 70,000 people consisting of 58% Caucasian and 42% people of color with the average household earning $49,042. LaGrange was named for the estate of French and American hero General Marquis de Lafayette, whose extensive travels brought him through this lovely, west Georgia area. LaGrange is home to LaGrange College, the oldest private college in the state, and WalletHub named LaGrange as one of America's best small cities to live and start a business. LaGrange High School is one of three high schools, 2 alternative schools, one county college and career academy, 3 middle schools, 11 elementary schools, and a psycho-educational center that comprise the Troup County School System.
