ELEMENTARY SCHOOLERS TO DO THEIR BEST TURKEY IMPRESSIONS DURING GAME OF TURKEY BINGO

In preparation for clearing their plates this Thanksgiving, the students at Ed Clapp Elementary School are clearing their Bingo cards.

WHAT: Turkey Bingo
WHEN: Tuesday, November 26 at 1:45 p.m.
WHERE: Ed Clapp Elementary School,
CONTACT: Nikki Nelson, Ed Clapp Assistant Principal, nelsonn@fargo.k12.nd.us or 701.446.2903 for more information.

Is that a turkey or an Ed Clapp Explorer? The students at Ed Clapp Elementary School are set to do their best turkey impressions on Tuesday in a schoolwide game of Turkey Bingo.

Students in all of the school's classrooms will be hanging on every number, anticipating the last number they need for a Bingo, as they are announced from the office through the school intercom system. When they finally hear G-57 – that's "G as in gobble" 57 – to complete their run of five in a row, they'll jump up and yell "bingo" and take their card to the front stairway to receive a prize.

Before they can collect their prize, they'll have to flap their wings, walk like a turkey, and gobble their way through the school to the prize table. The school's hallways are sure to be stuffed like a turkey full of avian imitators as the students enjoy their festive game of Bingo.
