RE: Former Santa Paula Unified School District Employee Arrested Regarding Allegations of Sexual Abuse

Santa Paula, CA- Santa Paula Unified School District is aware of the recent arrest of a former employee regarding allegations of sexual abuse that occurred while the individual was employed with the District in 2018.

At the time of the allegations, the District took immediate action by launching an internal investigation and working in close collaboration with law enforcement. The District remains fully committed to transparency and accountability and is continuing to cooperate with the Ventura County District Attorney's Office in its current proceedings.

We take any allegations of misconduct seriously and are committed to creating a safe and supportive environment for all members of our school community.

The District encourages anyone with information related to this case to contact law enforcement or the Ventura County District Attorney's Office directly.

For any additional questions, please contact Ventura County District Attorney Investigator Greg Webb at (805) 477-1627.

We are horrified by this incident and remain steadfast in our commitment to ensuring the safety and security of all students and staff.
