COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Parents and Students:

Thanksgiving break is a time to slow down, unwind, and recharge. It's a moment to reflect on the things we often overlook in our busy lives — family, friends, good health, and the simple joys we sometimes take for granted. Whether it's enjoying a cozy meal, taking a quiet walk, or sharing laughter with loved ones, this break offers a chance to rest and be truly grateful for the many things we have. It's a reminder to pause, breathe, and appreciate the present.
