Use of Emergency 911 Number: 911 should be used when there is a fire, medical or other emergency or a crime in progress at or near your location. 911 should not be called for non-emergency incidents or when you are requesting information. Please use the non-emergency numbers listed under city, county, tribal or state police/fire/medical.

List of hospitals: The names of hospitals or medical centers may or may not use the owner company's name in the listing, due to space limitations. The names used may be common names for better recognition. Hospitals listed with an asterisk (*) next to them are certified trauma centers as determined by the Arizona Department of Health Services. Special note: Good Samaritan Hospital has been renamed as Banner University Medical Center.

Emergency Communications: What if the 911 system fails? Use the numbers listed here. If the telephone system were to fail, please check our website, www.phx550.com, for communication options to use in an emergency.

Correcting or updating information: Please email us at comments@gmrs1900.net.
