

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

November

6th

Lonette Cliff

Lonette is the daughter of Leon Lodge and Deanna Correll. She has six siblings, Mersades, Casey, Lily, Winter, Kolton, and Sundance.

Lonette plays the clarinet in the middle school band. Outside of school, she stays active at the Boys and Girls Club. In her free time, Lonette loves drawing, reading, playing the guitar, and spending time with family.

At school, Lonette is always kind and extremely polite to everyone. She has a strong work ethic and never complains about the task at hand. Her personality lights up the school, making it a wonderful place for everyone.

Lonette's future aspirations are to excel at mathematics and playing the guitar.

7th

Clay Golie

Clay is the son of Rusty and Rita Golie. He has two siblings, Austin and Brandon Wombold.

Clay plays the trombone in the middle school band and participates in football. Outside of school, he enjoys playing multiple sports. In his spare time, Clay likes playing video games, tending to all his pets, and hanging out with family and friends. At school, Clay exceeds all expectations and works to his fullest potential. He has an upbeat attitude and is supportive of his classmates. Clay sets the standard high for what students at HMS should strive to become.

In the future, Clay plans to own his own pet store business.

8th

Brooklyn Butler

Brooklyn is the daughter of Kirkley and Stephanie Butler. She has one brother, Tucker Butler.

Brooklyn participates in middle school basketball, and track & field. She maintains a high GPA and is a member of the National Jr. Honor Society. Outside of school, she is involved with multiple sports. In her free time, Brooklyn loves spending time with her friends. At school, Brooklyn is an active learner who works to her fullest potential. She is respectful and always willing to lend a helping hand. Brooklyn models every aspect of what "Pony Pride" looks like at HMS.

In the future, Brooklyn aspires to make the high school basketball team and plans to excel in whatever she desires to become.
