4th Annual DVEF BATTLE OF THE BOOKS
SCHOOL PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

In the interest of providing a high quality, equitable program for all participants the Deer Valley Education Foundation (DVEF) and participating schools in the Deer Valley School District both parties agree to cooperate on the Battle of the Books program in the following manner:

DVEF agrees to provide:

1. Rules and procedures for the Battle of the Books program.
2. A minimum of one set of books to each participating library. Sets of books increase with the number of teams participating at your school.
3. A list of titles being used for the Battle of the Books program.
4. Questions for each Battle.
5. A Master Template – Certificate of Participation for individuals.
6. Organize and conduct Battles at your school.
7. Special awards (depending on the number of teams participating) for the first place at your school.
8. Organize and conduct the Regional, District, and Inter-district battles against teams from Chandler, Deer Valley, Gilbert, Higley, Mesa, and Queen Creek/Homes.

School Library Clerk at each school agrees to provide:

1. Compliance with and distribution of all Battle of the Books rules and procedures.
2. Distribution and collection of participation agreement forms (Team Form, Parent/Custodial and Student Agreement form).
3. Advertisement and promotion of Battle of the Books program.
4. Organization of the Battle of the Books teams using fifth and sixth grade students who have VOLUNTEERED to participate in the program.

Make a copy for yourself, then FAX (623-445-5087) or e-mail this signed agreement to marie.brennan@dvusd.org

I agree to participate in the DVEF Battle of the Books program as noted above.
