Connection

Get in the Game!

Mission: We will build relationships in a safe learning environment so we can positively impact all Chargers.

Vision: We will foster a community of diversity while serving the next generation of leaders today, tomorrow and for the future.

Did you know?

More than anything, I am the most proud of the diversity of our Charger Family!

Our current student body:

41% African-American 28% Hispanic
17% White 10% Asian
1% Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander
2 or More Races 4% 19+ languages spoken

Campus Goal: Increase the average of K-5th graders' Math MAP Assessment score by 5%.

Hispanic Heritage

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Parents,
The first interim reports were sent home on Thursday. This is a brief snapshot of your child's abilities. Stay ahead of their progress or lack of progress and ask for help if you need it. Remember absences add up to lost instructional time.

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Hey Chargers!

Students are continuing their journey through Quaver Guidance lessons with Ms. Dishman and Mrs. Raiford. This has been such a great opportunity to continue getting to know our students.

Kid: Judah Barry in 1st grade with Mrs. Isaac and Ms. Ingram

About me: I'm a Licensed Professional Counselor who owns Abundant Life Counseling and Consulting Services. I'm also wrapping up my studies for a PhD in Counseling and Psychological Studies at Regent University. I love giving my time and talents to help the community and those around me excel.

Likes: Reading, Cooking, Travelling, Fall weather, Cozy blankets and Sleeping

Dislikes: Hot weather, ungratefulness

Why I joined the PTA: I wanted to be involved in my son's academic journey in more ways than just homework and parent-teacher conferences. It is important to me that he sees me as an active, interested, and invested part of his life.
