Background & Purpose

Background

Beaumont ISD is committed to creating training and development programs that build individual and organizational capacity. The District has been providing an online proficiency course for paraprofessionals and is seeking to enhance the training and support provided to these employees. We are seeking to offer targeted virtual training in areas of need that will prepare our paraprofessionals to be partners in education with teachers.

Knowing that employees at every level of the organization are our most valuable asset, Beaumont ISD is seeking to build capacity now and in the future by bringing training opportunities on a variety of important topics to all paraprofessionals who work with our students on a daily basis.

Purpose

Beaumont ISD is issuing this Request for Proposal (RFP) to solicit proposals from qualified training providers who have the ability to develop and deliver virtual training through multiple collaboration groups with ongoing support. These collaboration groups will train, learn and foster their skills together throughout the school year and beyond. The online training, support and continuous improvement will be aimed at building organizational success through providing skills to paraprofessionals that will elevate their level of support to students. Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
