

PORTRAIT OF A Stallion

5th
Grade

ESSENTIAL SKILLS

Cooperation/collaboration with peers at work and play
Completing work on time
Accountability for work and behavior
Accepting constructive feedback on work/behavior
Hands to self
Using kind words
Being a leader/positive role model; but not bossy
Active listening/follow directions/active participation
Apply information learned to new academic situations
Paraphrasing written or verbal directions

READING

Figurative language
Theme
Informational Text
Sustained Reading
Plot

WRITING

Essay Writing (Argumentative and Informative)
Counter-argument (address an opposing viewpoint and a counter to it), MLA format, sentence stems, transitions, cite evidence

MATH

Prior knowledge: multiplication facts to 12
Add, subtract, multiply, and divide fractions and decimals to thousandths
Understand volume and solve volume related problems
Use the standard algorithm for multiplication and division of multi digit numbers
Classify quadrilaterals
Place value - millions to thousandths
Understand and write different forms of numbers - standard, expanded, word, unit
Solve word problems involving all above concepts

SOCIAL STUDIES

Building Background Knowledge
DBQ Writing
Citing Sources
Reference People by name, no vague pronouns (Abe Lincoln vs. He)
RACE
Restate the question, cite the evidence

SCIENCE

Collaboration During Labs
Claims with evidence and reasoning
Synthesizing Information from all learning in class (they want to Google and get something online to answer with instead of content that's been taught in class)

