Charges for 2024/25 Lent and Trinity Inclusive of VAT

Literacy Support

The first lesson as part of a group for literacy is not chargeable

All sessions are individually tailored and provide a structured literacy programme.

£408 per term for one session per week, 1:1

£762 per term for two sessions per week 1:1

Paired sessions: 1:2 £216 per term

Numeracy Support

The first lesson as part of a group for numeracy is not chargeable

All sessions are individually tailored and provide a structured numeracy programme.

£408 per term for one session per week 1:1

£762 per term for two sessions per week 1:1

Paired lessons: 1:2 £216 per term

Formal in-school assessment with verbal feedback to parents: £126

All of our support options are tailored to the needs of the individual and the pupil's strengths and weaknesses. All materials are provided. The School is committed to the provision of Learning Support facilities, and the charges are subsidised accordingly.

As with all extra charges, a full term's notice in writing is required of any cancellation or alteration. If this notice is not received then the term's fee is normally chargeable.

Refunds will not normally be given for missed or cancelled lessons, although every attempt will be made to reschedule these where possible.

Queries regarding charges for Learning Support should be directed, in the first instance, to the Bursary.

Use of External Therapists

Occasionally specific educational needs may require the expertise of external therapists and more complex needs may need to be assessed by an Educational Psychologist. The cost of these additional services must be borne by the parents.
