COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

Collision Repair senior Blake Leichty was on the job at Opeka Auto Repair.

Working at The Pittsburgh Hair Bar, Lilyan Dufalla Hall has completed her required hours, passed her state exam, and is licensed in Pennsylvania.

Blake and Lilyan both attend Canon-McMillan High School

National Technical Honor Society

NTHS members Selena Martinez (CM), Eva Cibrone (PT), Annalise Algeo (PT), Bryce Gilbert (FC) and Brylee Merrell (CM) helped load the van with 1300 pounds of food and miscellaneous items collected during the school's food drive for delivery to the Community Circle Food Pantry.

Health Occupations

Instructor Michelle Eaborn was working with students practicing patient care, IV and stethoscope procedures. Pictured are Mackenzie Shrader (M), Rylie Stroud (B), Aubrey Stein (T), Izabelle Likar (T), Paige Ingram (M), Heidi Burnette (T), Olyvia Siler (M), Riley Wells (M), Lilly Cipranic (B) and Lily Pronesti (B).

We sincerely thank Giant Eagle and anonymous community donors for their generosity in providing Thanksgiving dinner "fixings" that were included in this year's student holiday raffle. Pictured above with Western Area Co-Op Coordinator Kim Anderson are Giant Eagle representatives Michael Wesolowski and Sherry Pipik. (Missing from the picture are Giant Eagle employees Edward Dice and Stephanie Summers.) We are thrilled and extremely thankful for your participation in this yearly event and assure you that your kindness and generosity will be greatly appreciated during the Thanksgiving Holiday.

The Western Area Career & Technology Center administration, teachers, and support staff wish everyone a very safe and Happy Thanksgiving.
