EITC/OSTC Eligibility Criteria

PLEASE NOTE: The eligibility criteria listed below is specific to the EITC/OSTC scholarship program provided through the Foundation for Jewish Day Schools. However, and as a reminder, if your school has directed you to complete this application, though you may not meet one or more of the EITC/OSTC criteria noted below, you still must complete this application as per your school's instructions to do so. There may be scholarship funding available beyond the EITC/OSTC program. Not completing this application will most likely impinge upon their ability to provide your student(s) with scholarship funds.

EITC/OSTC Eligibility for Students with a Disability

To be considered an eligible student with a disability, in addition to being a Pennsylvania resident living with parent(s)/legal guardian, a student must meet the following criteria: (1) identified as a "child with a disability" as defined in Title 34 CFR §300.8 OR (2) need special education and related services OR (3) enrolled in a school and (4) a member of a household that meets the maximum annual household income eligibility. With respect to an eligible student with a disability, multiply the sum of $112,348 plus the allowance(s) of $19,775 per student and dependent, by the support level factor of 1.50 if the student is not enrolled in a special education school. For example: $198,185 with one dependent at home; $227,847 with two dependents at home. NOTE: The actual award eligibility based on this higher maximum household income is only for the student with the disability. The regular maximum household eligibility remains for the non-disability student(s) in the household.
