HIGHLIGHTS

Permian High School TEEN PARENT RELATED SERVICES SUPPORTING SUCCESS

The TPRS staff are a group of dedicated women working together to empower teen students during and after pregnancy. They help them adjust academically, mentally, and physically to stay in school. They are a wonderful support service that provide the following:

- Pregnancy/Parenting Information
- Post High School Planning and Career Planning
- Homebound Services
- Free Childcare Services
- Information for additional support services
- Free Tutoring
- Academic/Counseling Services

Brooklynn Davis is an exemplary teen parent in our TPRS program. Despite her busy schedule as a parent and a student she gives back to the community through the Philanthropy group doing community service hours.

Brooklynn loves the challenge and she also runs track for Permian High School. Her resilience helps her carefully balance her responsibilities. We are proud of you.

Permian High School COLLEGE OPPORTUNITIES

Congratulations to Kyra Radcliff, Julissa Anaya, Antigony Garcia, and Kahleeya Jackson. We are super proud of you. On Thursday, November 14th, four of our outstanding TPRS students received a Direct Admissions Letter from UTPB.

The Direct Admissions Program, provides automatic admission to UTPB for qualified seniors. The program simplifies the college application process, eliminating the need for the Apply Texas application.

The TPRS staff will assist these students as they complete the steps to finalize their admission. We are excited to see them take the next step towards their future.
