

Middle School Teacher of the Year 2024-2025

Amanda Hannigan, Teacher of Special Education

Kingsway Regional Middle School is honored to recognize Mrs. Amanda Hannigan, a passionate and dedicated Special Education Teacher, as the 2024-2025 Middle School Teacher of the Year. Since joining Kingsway in 2013, Mrs. Hannigan has exemplified the qualities of an outstanding educator, inspiring students and colleagues with her unwavering commitment to excellence.

A graduate of Kutztown University with a Bachelor of Science in Special Education, Mrs. Hannigan also holds a Master of Education degree in School Leadership from Wilmington University. Over her 13 years at Kingsway, she has become a cornerstone of the Middle School community, fostering an environment where students feel valued, supported, and empowered to succeed.

As Special Education Department Chair, Mrs. Hannigan has championed her students and colleagues, offering thoughtful leadership and innovative solutions. Her calm and consistent approach has built trust and strong relationships, making her a true advocate for the needs of all learners. She has also excelled as an Academic Assistant Program Coordinator, refining processes through data-driven decision-making to better serve the student body.

Beyond her leadership roles, Mrs. Hannigan has demonstrated incredible versatility and adaptability as a lead teacher in the STEP program, and as an educator across multiple content areas. Her contributions extend to professional development and mentorship, where her dedication to growth and collaboration has positively impacted the entire school community.

Reflecting on this recognition, Mrs. Hannigan shared, "It has been an absolute privilege to work with such talented colleagues, amazing students, and dedicated administrators here at Kingsway. This incredible community has shaped me both personally and professionally, and I am deeply honored to receive this recognition."

Kingsway is fortunate to have such an exceptional educator and leader. Congratulations, Mrs. Hannigan, on this well-deserved honor as Teacher of the Year!
