

Educational Professional of the Year 2024-2025

Danielle Baney, School Psychologist

Kingsway Regional School District is proud to recognize Mrs. Danielle Baney, an exceptional School Psychologist, as the 2024-2025 Educational Support Professional of the Year. Since joining Kingsway in 2011 as a member of the Child Study Team, Mrs. Baney has been a cornerstone of the Middle School community, providing invaluable support to students, families, and colleagues.

A graduate of Richard Stockton College of NJ with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, Mrs. Baney also holds an Educational Specialist degree in School Psychology from Rowan University. Over the past 14 years, she has exemplified professionalism, expertise, and compassion in her many roles. From conducting psychological assessments to crisis intervention, case management, and individual and group counseling, she has consistently demonstrated an unwavering commitment to student well-being and success.

In addition to her core responsibilities, Mrs. Baney serves as the Middle School Anti-Bullying Specialist, a key member of the Safety and Climate Team, a Team Leader for the Special Education Department, and a co-advisor for Dragon Spark. Her ability to foster collaboration, offer thoughtful solutions, and maintain a calm and professional demeanor in every situation has made her a trusted resource for both students and staff.

Reflecting on this honor, Mrs. Baney shared, “Supporting the Kingsway community has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my career. I am truly grateful for the opportunity to work with such an incredible team and to play a role in helping our students succeed.”

Kingsway is fortunate to have such a dedicated and compassionate professional on its team. Congratulations, Mrs. Baney, on this well-deserved recognition as Educational Support Professional of the Year! Your positive and lasting impact on our school community is truly inspiring.
