

Computer Technology and Internet Use Agreement

Northfield Elementary School is pleased to offer a computer network for in-school work and for access to the Internet. Our Internet access is filtered by OpenDNS to screen out undesirable content. To gain access to the Internet, all students must obtain parental permission.

Acceptable use means that the student agrees to use the computers and special learning tools and programs, such as the Internet, with respect. Acceptable use means students will promise to follow the school rules as outlined below. The use of these electronic resources is designed to support education. If rules are broken, a student may lose his/her privilege to use the school computers and the Internet.

Be Kind

- I will not use the computer or electronic devices to be hurtful to others.
- I will not view, send or display inappropriate messages or pictures.
- I will not access or tamper with other people's work or files.

Be Safe

- I will not give my address or phone number to anyone on the Internet.
- I will tell an adult if I see anything that makes me uncomfortable or receive messages I do not like.
- I will not share my password with anyone but my parents.

Be Responsible

- I will use all computer equipment carefully.
- I will obey copyright laws.
- I will not download or print without permission from an adult.
- I understand that the school can check my computer files and monitor the Internet sites I visit.

By signing my name I agree that I will follow these rules.
