

NORTHFIELD TOWN SCHOOL DISTRICT

VERIFICATION OF RESIDENCY

The Northfield Town School District serves families who live in a primary residence in Northfield, Vermont. If the parents of a student live apart within the state of Vermont and one parent still resides in Northfield, the student will be considered a resident, regardless of legal or actual custody arrangements. HOWEVER , if a parent with sole custody lives outside the state of Vermont, the student does not have legal residence in Vermont. (Title 16 V.S.A., Section 1075)

If the student is 18 years old, residency is the town in which the STUDENT resides.
