

Understanding Behavior Support for Your Child

How We Help Your Child Thrive Through Positive Behavior Strategies

By

Dr. Laurel Keegan

Objectives

- Define behavior support and why it's important.
- Explain how behavior support benefits your child.
- Share strategies and supports we use at school.
- Discuss how we partner with you to promote success.

What is Behavior Support?

- A set of strategies to help students manage their emotions and actions.
- Focused on teaching positive behaviors to replace challenging ones.
- Individualized to meet your child's unique needs.

Why is Behavior Support Important?

- Helps your child feel safe and supported at school.
 - Promotes a positive learning environment.
 - Builds skills like self-regulation and problem-solving.
 - Encourages confidence and independence.
-

Behavior Support Strategies We Use

- Positive Reinforcement:
 - Rewarding positive behaviors with praise or incentives.
- Visual Supports:
 - Charts, schedules, or timers to help guide your child.
- Calm-Down Techniques:
 - Breathing exercises or sensory tools to manage emotions.
- Social Skills Training:
 - Teaching communication and conflict resolution.

What a Behavior Plan Includes

- CLEAR DESCRIPTION OF CHALLENGING BEHAVIORS.

- IDENTIFIED TRIGGERS (ANTECEDENTS) AND REPLACEMENT BEHAVIORS.

- SPECIFIC STRATEGIES AND INTERVENTIONS.

- MEASURABLE GOALS TO TRACK PROGRESS.

- REGULAR REVIEW AND UPDATES.

How We Support Your Child at School

- Consistent routines and clear expectations.
- One-on-one or small group support as needed.
- Collaboration with teachers, counselors, and specialists.
- Frequent communication to ensure continuity between school and home.

How Behavior Support Benefits Your Child

- Improved focus and participation in learning activities.
- Enhanced emotional well-being and self-esteem.
- Stronger relationships with peers and teachers.
- Development of lifelong skills for success.

How We Partner with Parents

- Regular updates on your child's progress.
- Sharing strategies to use at home.
- Collaborative problem-solving during meetings.
- Open communication to address concerns or celebrate successes.

Questions and Discussion

- How can we better support your child?
- What strategies work well at home?
- What goals do you have for your child's behavior and learning?

Thank You!

- Together, we can help your child succeed.
- Please feel free to reach out with any questions or ideas.

Please take the survey listed below to confirm your participation in this training.

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1Buvw87fh6G8mZNU-lyUtc6eYrWp5K_vQFxrKsLnjig/edit
