Meet Hendrick Hudson High School's Valedictorian Rachel Keefe and Salutatorian Chiara Quick

Titles were never something that motivated Rachel Keefe and Chiara Quick. The honor of becoming the Class of 2024's Valedictorian and Salutatorian, respectively, was simply the byproduct of their determination and effort.

"It was never something I was striving to achieve," the 18-year-old Keefe said. "It was really unexpected for me when I heard I was the Valedictorian. I worked for myself and strived to do the best I could. It was never really about trying to come out on top. I just worked hard to feel proud of myself."

"I never worked for a title," the 17-year-old Quick added. "I just always wanted to put my best in each day. It's really rewarding to know the work I put in for myself earned a title where everyone will realize what I did. This is a nice opportunity for people to understand that you can earn something without trying to seek recognition."

And work to earn those titles they did.

Keefe was the only member of the senior class to complete Hendrick Hudson High School's prestigious Science Research program, which is taught by Dr. Christine Rogers. She will now follow her older sister, Katelyn, to the University of Richmond and intends to study Mathematics and Data Sciences and perhaps Economics as well.

Keefe raved about Hen Hud's Math department and credited it with nurturing her love of the subject. She praised teachers

Jeremy Tullo and Kimberly Rinaldi for having an impact on her academic success.

"It's been a really positive and encouraging environment," Keefe said. "These are pretty challenging classes, but they don't make them hard at all. They make the concepts seem easy to grasp. They've helped set me up for a career in mathematics. I know I have the confidence to succeed."

Salutatorian Chiara Quick and Valedictorian Rachel Keefe

Keefe has been a member of the varsity cheer team since freshman year and served as a captain during her senior year. She was also a peer leader and a member of the school's National Honor Society and Math Honor Society.

"We have a great support system here," Keefe said. "I always felt close with my teachers and knew I could ask them questions. Even on a more personal level, they were always there to help me to do the best I could. Everyone here is there for you. It's a great environment here and that makes it easier to succeed."

Quick's success included spending all four years of high school on the Project Lead the Way Biomedical Sciences track under teacher Dr. Jeanine Hall.

Quick was accepted Early Decision last fall to Barnard College and plans to double major in English and Chemistry, but also has interest in perhaps pursuing Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies.

Despite the apparent differences in her desired areas of studies, Quick said the enjoyment she derived from both made it impossible to choose just one.

“After my experiences throughout high school, I knew that English and Chemistry are two topics I just don’t want to give up,” she said.

Quick pointed to Melissa Barthelmes and Juliana Maye in English and Kelly Lavaia and Thomas Confrey in Chemistry as teachers who had a positive impact on her.

Quick became the Editor-in-Chief for The North Star, Hen Hud’s literary magazine; the President of the National Honor Society; the Secretary of the Math Honor Society; and a member of Mathletes. She also helped tutor elementary school students and has participated in taekwondo for 15 years, reaching fourth-degree black belt status.

“I feel like Hen Hud has given me a lot of opportunities to challenge myself with the courses I was taking,” Quick said. “I could definitely try classes out and see what I liked and what I didn’t like. I think that is helpful going into college. My teachers have also helped put me on the right track. It has given me confidence in my academic life because I saw my potential. I know my best is pretty high up there. Even though I wasn’t working toward this title, I now know what I’m capable of.”

Hendrick Hudson Honors its 2024 Retirees at Annual Recognition Ceremony

The Hendrick Hudson School District paid tribute to the 21 staff members retiring in 2024, sending them off with a reception and recognition at the Board of Education meeting on Tuesday, June 18.

Dr. Margaret Ruller, the district's Executive Director of Curriculum and Instruction, paid tribute to each of the retirees, then gave the outgoing staff members in attendance a gift from the district.

"Retirement is not an end; it's a beginning," Dr. Ruller said. "I will miss you all dearly. I wish all of the best to each of you."

The recognition, which was attended by family, friends and other Hendrick Hudson colleagues, was organized by Dr. Ruller and Fran Dodaro, the district's Administrative Assistant for Human Resources, who received thanks for their efforts from Superintendent of Schools Michael A. Tromblee.

Mr. Tromblee also credited Director of Food Services Clare Carey and the custodial staff, who transitioned at the last minute due to excessive heat and relocated refreshments for the reception and equipment for the meeting, respectively, from the auditorium to the library. He went on to say events like this year's retirement recognition make a school district "feel more like a family," and noted that the retirees, who gave so much to the school community, will now have more time to spend with those closest to them.

"The legacy of your dedication to Hendrick Hudson will continue to inspire generations of Sailors to come," Mr. Tromblee said.

Hendrick Hudson's Class of 2024 Celebrated at Commencement Ceremony

The message to the Hendrick Hudson High School graduating Class of 2024 resonated throughout this year's Commencement Ceremony. It was voiced by members of the administration and student speakers, who reminded those in caps and gowns to be proud of what they were accomplishing.

"You have earned it," said Chiara Quick, the Class of 2024's Salutatorian. "And you are ready for the future."

This year's seniors were saluted for their success and pointed toward bright futures at a festive graduation ceremony, which was held in the HHHS Dome on Friday, June 21. Quick, Valedictorian Rachel Keefe and Master of Ceremonies George Wright helped establish a celebratory tone, while Principal Lauren Scollins, who delivered the opening address; Board of Education President Alexis Bernard; and Superintendent of Schools Michael A. Tromblee each paid tribute to the new graduates.

"This is the end of one chapter," Bernard said, "and the beginning of another."

Superintendent Tromblee, overseeing his first Hendrick Hudson commencement, implored students to always remember to embrace their roots, cultivate their environment and be resilient.

"As you leave here today, remember that you are not just stepping into the next chapter of your lives. You are stepping into a world of endless possibilities," Tromblee said. "Whether you are heading to college, starting a new job, or exploring different paths, carry with you the belief that you can bloom wherever you are planted."

Keefe also touted her classmates for their resiliency, saying they have consistently faced challenges and persevered in the face of them.

"It has been an honor to get to know each and every one of you and the resilience you've shown," Keefe said. "I hope you always hold onto your dreams."

In addition to the student speakers, other members of the senior class performed, with Mia O'Malley and Max Lipton joining together to sing the National Anthem. Later, the Senior Singers performed the song "Landslide."

The commencement was highlighted by the Presentation of Diplomas, administered by Assistant Principals Nick Katsaris and Maria Pearson. After the smiling graduates were cheered one by one, they were presented to the crowd. The students moved their tassels from right to left and then tossed their caps before dispersing to celebrate their achievement with family and friends.
