Honoring the Stewards of the Land

Lake Washington School District

Washington State Tribal Reservations and Draft Treaty Ceded Areas

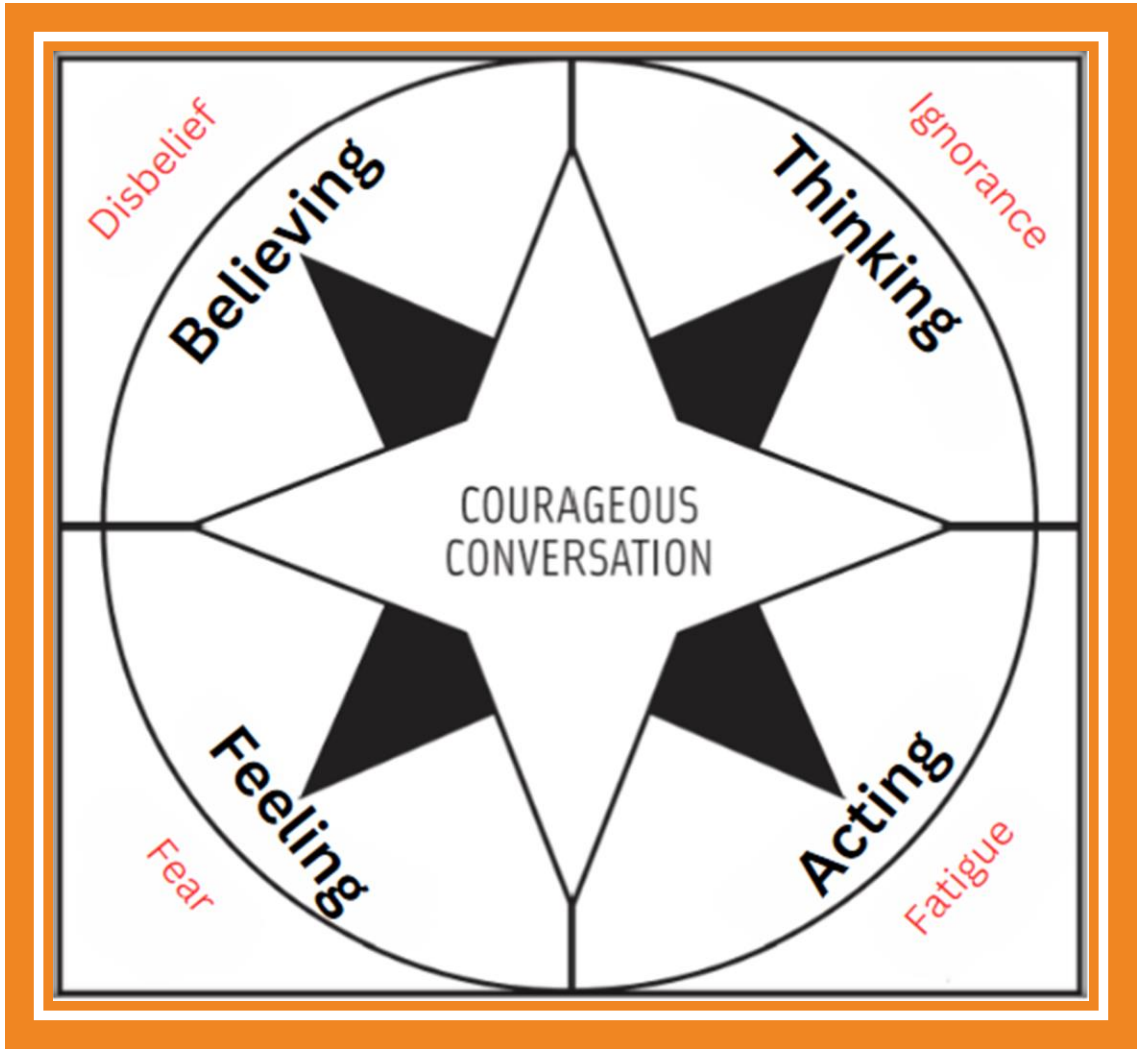

We acknowledge that we are on the Indigenous Land of the Coast Salish peoples who have reserved treaty rights to this land, including the Duwamish (dxʷdəwʔabš), Suquamish Tribe (dxʷəqʷabsˇ), Muckleshoot Indian Tribe (bəqəlsˇuł), and Snoqualmie Indian Tribe (sdukʷalbixʷ). We thank these caretakers of this land who have lived, and continue to live, here since time immemorial.

We honor their stewardship of the land, past, present, and future. We will learn how to engage our students to foster the skills we need to make better decisions that connect our community, protect our environment, and improve society for our future.

World Café Directions

Lake Washington School District

Objective: For groups to identify the ONE priority that is the most important takeaway for student success.

- Your group will rotate through 4 stations
- Your group will carry 1 piece of poster paper with them to each rotation
- Divide your poster into 4 sections (title each section the name of the rotations)
- For each rotation, your group will answer this question:

What is the MOST important thing that will make this plan the most helpful?

Framing the Conversations

Lake Washington School District

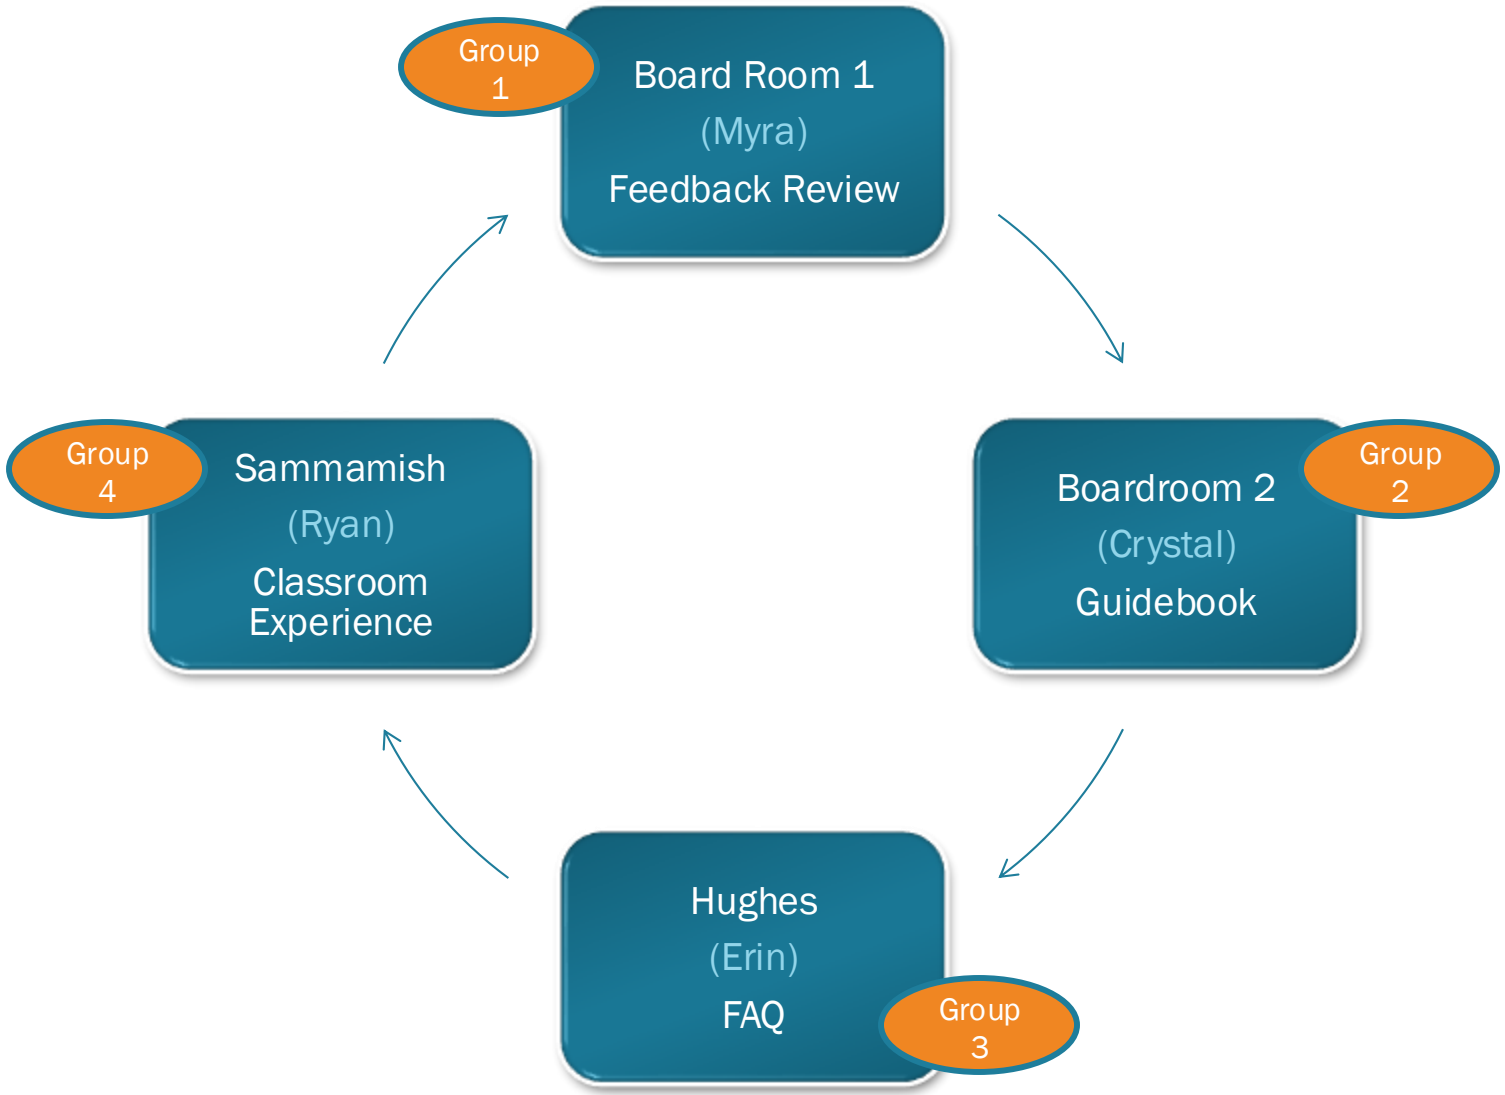

- Honor Equity of Voice
- Dream Boldly, Ground in Reality
- Center the Student Experience
- Support Teachers as Key Partners
- Commit to Continuous Improvement

World Café Starting Rotations and Timing

Lake Washington School District

- Each group will start in a different location
- You will rotate clockwise through the rooms (ex. group 4 will rotate to BR1 when time is called)
- Each rotation will last 15 minutes
- We will take a 10-minute break after the first two rotations

Starting Room

Share-out

Lake Washington School District

Share-out:

- Choose a speaker for your group.
  - Your speaker will explain to the committee what your group thought was the most important thing that will make this plan the most helpful from each of your rotations.

Next Steps and Closure

THANK YOU TO OUR COMMITTEE MEMBERS!

- Remain committed to confidentiality.
- Meeting minutes and the agenda on our webpage.
- Please check Teams for group reflections and key takeaways.
- An email will be sent with details for the next committee meeting, tentatively planned for late winter or early spring (date TBD).
- Focus groups will be convened in the interim to gather additional input.

One thing I have learned…

(Reflect and share as we close.)
