ADVENT at SCC

Immaculee Ilibagiza

Immaculee Ilibagiza is a survivor of the 1994 Rwandan genocide that took the lives of nearly one million Tutsis. Men, women, and children, including her entire family except for one of her brothers, were massacred at the hands of Hutu marauders.

Immaculee found shelter at a pastor's home. During those 91 days of unimaginable suffering, Immaculee found her faith, taught herself English, and, most incredibly, committed herself to a life of peace, hope, and forgiveness. Today, she brought her message to SCC where she spoke for 90 minutes visited with students, signing books and encouraging them to live every moment in love. Reconciliation

December 4 - First Week of Advent

Each year, we offer a school-wide Reconciliation

Service during Advent and Lent where priests from neighboring parishes come to administer the sacrament for our students. This year's Advent Reconciliation service was a lovely event with six priests visiting campus to share God's mercy with us. Many thanks to all who coordinated and participated.
