Support Staff Handbook

The policies in this handbook are subject to revision at any time per changes in Federal and State law and at the discretion of the Southeast Dubois County School Corporation Board of School Trustees. This handbook is not a contract of employment.

January 2025

Welcome to Southeast Dubois County School Corporation!

The purpose of this Support Staff Handbook is to provide employees with information regarding their employment with the school corporation. It is intended that this handbook become a communication resource document.

Because of different working situations within the school corporation, it is nearly impossible to include every item of information and interpretation to individual circumstances that might arise during the school or work year.

Our policies, practices, and benefits are continuously reviewed for updating, and we expect to change them from time to time. Therefore, you should always check with your building principal for the most current ones. Corporation benefits plans are defined in legal documents such as insurance contracts, official plan texts, and trust agreements. This means that if a question ever arises about the nature and extent of plan benefits or if there is a difference in language, the formal language of the plan documents governs, not the simple wording of this handbook. Plan documents are available for your inspection in the Superintendent's office.

We look forward to your continued employment with Southeast Dubois County School Corporation in order that we may offer the best possible educational programs to its students. Support Staff personnel play a vital role in the efficiency of the school corporation, even though your duties may not relate directly to classroom instruction. Your individual contributions to the school corporation are highly valued and appreciated.

Dr. Jamie Pund, Superintendent
Southeast Dubois County School Corporation

1. Worker's Compensation will pay the medical expenses incurred as a result of a workplace injury/illness when the employee obtains medical treatment from Memorial Health Employer Services by presenting a Consent for Treatment signed by the Business Manager. The consent form will contain the names and addresses of authorized centers.

Important Note: If the employee is covered under any group health insurance plan, a claim should not be submitted to the insurance plan. Injuries related to Worker's Compensation are not covered by any group health plan.

2. After the employee is off more than seven (7) consecutive days, Worker's Compensation will begin paying on the eighth (8) consecutive day and for every day thereafter.

3. After the employee is off work for more than twenty-one (21) consecutive days, then Worker's Compensation will go back and pay for the first seven (7) days. If the employee is not off work for twenty-one (21) days, his/her own leave benefits (sick days) must cover the first seven (7) days of absence.
4. Worker's Compensation will only pay 66 2/3 of the employee's weekly salary up to a statutory maximum per week for 52 weeks. For a total impairment this is paid for a maximum of 500 weeks.
5. Worker's Compensation uses a formula of 1/7 of the weekly rate to establish the daily rate.

Payment of Sick Leave

1. Under the State Board of Accounts rules, based on the official opinion of the Attorney General, No. 134 of 1945, an employee would only be entitled to receive the difference between the amount received under the Worker's Compensation Act and the full benefit the employee would otherwise receive.

If the employee uses an accrued sick day and receives full pay from the school corporation, then the Worker's Compensation benefit must be turned over to the corporation. Double payment or overlapping payment of compensation on account of the same injury is not permitted.

2. If the employee receives no sick leave pay from the corporation, he retains the Worker's Compensation check.

TERMINATION AND RESIGNATION

It is our policy to make a reasonable effort to retain good employees. However, employment in the corporation is for no specified times, regardless of the length of service, just as you are free to leave for any reason, we reserve the same right to end our relationship with any employee at any time, with or without notice, for any reason not prohibited by law. If an employee plans to terminate employment with the SE Dubois, the employee is expected to give at least two weeks' notice submitted in writing to the immediate supervisor/building principal. The building principal will forward the notice to the Superintendent and Business Manager.

The written resignation should contain the reason for termination, as the letter is placed in the individual's file and may be used for references at a later date. A resignation is a voluntary cessation of employment when the employee is not eligible for retirement. Accrued vacation and personal day pay is forfeited if there is less than two weeks' notice before voluntary termination. Employees leaving without notice will be considered as voluntary termination, and accrued vacation and personal day pay is forfeited.

On the last day of employment, the return of all Corporation items (i.e. keys, ID's, and Corporation owned uniforms) to the immediate supervisor is required.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

In the event of an infraction of Board policy, administration guidelines, rules, or directives by a support staff member, it shall be the policy of the School Board to apply the statutes of the State, these policies, and the guidelines of the Corporation with equal consideration to each support staff member.

The Board reserves the right, within law, to impose penalties for disciplinary reasons. However, where a support staff member fails or refuses to perform work without acceptable reason, the Superintendent may deduct, without further authorization, wages reasonably related to the time not worked.

Other disciplinary actions, up to and including dismissal, may be recommended to the Board by the Superintendent.

EMERGENCY DELAYS AND CLOSINGS

If it is necessary to close or delay the start of SE Dubois due to inclement weather, power failure, or any other emergency, the Superintendent will notify the media of the closing or delay. Employees are to listen to local radio and television stations for information. In addition, employees may be notified of school delays and closings via the automated calling system.

In the event of a school closing that results in a make-up day, the employees will be expected to work the make-up day without additional compensation unless they are required to work on the day school was closed.

When school has a two (2) hour delay, instructional assistants that work less than 5 hours on the day, are not required to take a lunch break upon approval of the building principal, and cafeteria staff are not required to take a lunch break upon approval of cafeteria manager or Food Service Director.

When school is closed and conducted with a virtual day for students, classified staff can use a personal day to be paid for the day.

APPENDIX G

COBRA CONTINUATION COVERAGE

WHAT IS COBRA CONTINUATION COVERAGE:

Federal law requires that the Corporation give employees and their families a Notice of COBRA Continuation Rights (Notice) which outlines the opportunity to continue their health care coverage as a “qualified beneficiary” when there is a qualifying event that would result in a loss of coverage under the plan. Examples of qualifying events are termination of employment, reduction in hours, loss of coverage due to an employee’s death, divorce or legal separation, the employee becoming eligible for Medicare benefits or a dependent child ceasing to be eligible for coverage.

Continuation coverage is the same coverage offered to other plan participants who are not receiving continuation coverage under COBRA. Each qualified beneficiary who elects continuation coverage will have the same rights under the Plan as other participants of beneficiaries covered by the plan, including special enrollment rights.

HOW LONG WILL CONTINUATION COVERAGE LAST?

In the case of a loss of coverage due to end of employment or reduction in hours of employment, coverage may be continued for up to eighteen (18) months.

In the case of loss of coverage due to an employee’s death, divorce or legal separation, the employee becoming entitled to Medicare benefits or a dependent child ceasing to be a dependent under the terms of the plan, coverage may be continued for up to thirty-six (36) months.

CAN THE MAXIMUM CONTINUATION PERIOD BE EXTENDED?

An extension of the maximum period of coverage may be available if a qualified beneficiary is disabled or a second qualifying event occurs. The employee must notify the Business Manager of a disability or a second qualifying event in order to extend the period of continuation coverage. Failure to provide notice of a disability or second qualifying event may affect the right to extend the period of continuation coverage.

HOW CAN YOU ELECT COBRA CONTINUATION COVERAGE?

To elect continuation coverage, you must complete and return the Election Form included with the Notice. Each qualified beneficiary has a separate right to elect continuation coverage. For example, the employee’s spouse may elect continuation coverage even if the employee does not. Continuation coverage may be elected for only one, several, or for all dependent children who are qualified beneficiaries. A parent may elect to continue coverage on behalf of any dependent children. The employee or the employee’s spouse can elect continuation coverage on behalf of all of the qualified beneficiaries.

In considering whether to elect continuation coverage, you should take into account that you have special enrollment rights under federal law. You have the right to request special enrollment in another group health plan for which you are otherwise eligible (such as a plan sponsored by your spouse's employer) within thirty (30) days after your group health coverage ends because of a qualifying event. You will also have the same special enrollment right at the end of the COBRA continuation period if you continue coverage for the maximum time available to you.

There may be other coverage options for you and your family through the Health Insurance Marketplace. In the Marketplace, you could be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premiums right away, and you can see what your premium, deductibles, and out-of-pocket costs will be before you make a decision to enroll. Being eligible for COBRA does not limit your eligibility for coverage for a tax credit through the Marketplace. Additionally, you may qualify for a special enrollment opportunity for another group health plan for which you are eligible (such as a spouse's plan), even if the plan generally does not accept late enrollees, if you request enrollment within thirty (30) days.

HOW MUCH DOES COBRA CONTINUATION COVERAGE COST?

Each qualified beneficiary is required to pay the entire cost of continuation coverage. There is no Board contribution toward the cost of continuation coverage. The amount a qualified beneficiary is required to pay may not exceed 102% (or, in the case of an extension of continuation coverage due to a disability, 150%) of the cost to the group health plan for coverage of a similarly situated plan participant who is not receiving continuation coverage.

WHEN AND HOW MUST PAYMENT FOR COBRA CONTINUATION COVERAGE BE MADE? First payment for continuation coverage

You must make your first payment for continuation coverage not later than forty-five (45) days after the date you elect continuation coverage. (This is the date the Election Notice is postmarked.) Your first payment will include the premium due from the first date of continuation coverage. It is your responsibility to contact the Business Manager to confirm the amount of your first payment. If you do not make your first payment for continuation coverage in full not later than forty-five (45) days after the date of your election, you will lose all continuation coverage rights under the Plan.

Periodic payments for continuation coverage

After you make your first payment for continuation coverage, you will be required to make subsequent payments for each coverage period. The amount due for each coverage period for each qualified beneficiary will be outlined in the Notice of COBRA Continuation Rights.

Payments can be made on a monthly basis or paid ahead. Under the Plan, payment for continuation coverage is due on the 15th of the month prior to the month for which premium is due. For example, January's premium is due December 15th, February's premium is due January 15th, and so on. The Plan does not send periodic notices of payment or payment reminders. There is a thirty (30) day grace period. Failure to make payments before the end of the grace period for that coverage period will result in termination of coverage without reinstatement.

WHEN WILL CONTINUATION COVERAGE END?

Continuation coverage will terminate on the earlier of:

- The date required premium is not paid in full on time,
- The date a qualified beneficiary becomes covered, after electing continuation coverage, under another group health plan,
- The date a qualified beneficiary becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both) after electing continuation coverage,
- The date the continuation period ends, or
- The date the employer ceases to provide any group health plan for its employees.

Continuation coverage may also be terminated for any reason the Plan would terminate coverage of a participant or beneficiary not receiving continuation coverage (such as fraud).

APPENDIX H

Family Medical Leave (FMLA)

SE Dubois will comply with the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 which provides twelve (12) weeks of unpaid leave to eligible employees for their own serious health condition, for care of a spouse, child, or parent with a serious health condition, or birth, adoption, or foster care of a child and twenty-six (26) weeks for service member FMLA. Employees who have been approved for FMLA on an intermittent basis are required to comply with the normal procedures for notifying the supervisor of an absence or the need to take time off and must identify the absence as FMLA related.

Under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) the Corporation is required to provide eligible employees with up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid, job protected leave for certain family and medical reasons. Employees are eligible if they have worked for at least one year, and for 1,250 hours over the previous twelve (12) months preceding the 1st day of requested FMLA leave.

At the time an employee gives verbal or written notice of the need for FMLA leave to the supervisor or Business Manager, the employee will be given written notice of his/her rights and responsibilities under the FMLA, along with the required forms for certification of need for the leave, if applicable. The employee need not specifically cite this Policy or the FMLA in order to request FMLA leave. The Superintendent or Business Manager will assist the employee in determining whether the FMLA applies to his/her specific circumstances.

Below is a general overview of the provisions under the FMLA. Please refer to the U.S. Department of Labor notice of Employee Rights and Responsibilities Under the Family and Medical Leave Act included in this Guide on the following page for greater detail.

Reasons for Taking Leave

Unpaid leave must be granted for any of the following reasons:

- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son, or daughter, or parent, who has a serious medical condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

The Corporation may require an employee to use accrued leave such as sick leave as a part of the FMLA leave. These days shall run concurrently with the non-paid leave benefit.

Advance Notice and Medical Certification

The employee may be required to provide advance leave notice and medical certification. Taking of leave may be denied if the requirements are not met:

- The employee ordinarily must provide thirty (30) days advance notice when the leave is "foreseeable."
- The Corporation may require certification to support a request for leave because of a serious health condition and may require second or third opinions (at the Corporation's expense) and a fitness for duty report to return to work.

Job Benefits and Protection

- For the duration of the FMLA leave, the employee's health coverage must be maintained, and the Board contribution toward the cost of coverage must continue.
- Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be returned to their original or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee leave.
