

Join Us for a Viewing of...

Screenagers: Elementary School Age Edition

Are you watching kids become too accustomed to using technology at too young an age? Screenagers: Elementary School Age Edition explores technology and the vulnerable corners of family life, and struggles over social media, video games, academics, and internet addiction. Featuring authors, psychologists, and brain scientists, Screenagers: Elementary School Age Edition reveals how tech time impacts kids' development and offers solutions for parents and kids to navigate the digital world and find balance.

Join us to view the movie and participate in a conversation afterward with fellow parents and professionals about the film's main takeaways.

Click here to watch the trailer!

TUESDAY, JANUARY
14, 2025

TIME:
6:00 - 7:30 PM

LOCATION:
EAST WARD
ELEMENTARY SCHOOL,
435 WASHINGTON
AVE.,
DOWNTOWN,
PA 19335

Click here to register!
Pre-registration encouraged but not required.

Brought to you by:

