The Purpose of the EAC Higher Education Scholarship:

1. EAC exists to make disciples who bring the Gospel to every man, woman, and child. Therefore, we are awarding 5 scholarships of $1000 each to students who take seriously the call to give Gospel access to people where they live, work, and play.
2. To award 5 annual scholarships to deserving students who meet the criteria below.
3. To encourage the spiritual and academic development of youth in our community.
4. To provide the recipients with support in following the service for the Gospel.

The Criteria for Selection of the EAC Higher Education Scholarship:

1. The 5 recipients will be selected each spring from the collection of applications.
2. The applicants must demonstrate that living and sharing the Gospel is a life priority. They should be good students with a 3.0 GPA or higher. They should also be model citizens; exhibiting godly conduct and must receive favorable teacher recommendation.
3. The applications should include:
 - a. A copy of the applicants' grades.
 - b. An essay from the applicant explaining their commitment to the Gospel and plans after graduation from their program of Higher Education.
 - c. A teacher recommendation.

The EAC Higher Education Scholarship is awarded once every year and for that current academic year only.
