Families and Friends!

We have a large slate of events this week, as our athletic teams start their competitions and our music programs have their holiday concerts. We also have the Art Dept. and some GFH clubs selling merchandise throughout this week at these events.

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Parents and Students:

As we wind down the semester and also head into the busy holiday season, please remember to be mindful of grades and absences. With 20 school days left until first semester finals, be sure to make the most of the time you have in class. Attend school, mindfully do work, take notes, pay attention to class lecture and discussion so grades are not as much of a stressor heading into finals week. Remember there are opportunities for assistance in the labs, Night School and Saturday School.
