Cost Share Model

The Alamo Colleges District is committed to providing greater dual credit attainment to students in our community by waiving tuition and fees for high school students through cost-share agreements with K-12 partners.

Beginning in Fall 2024, we are reducing the cost of dual credit opportunities for our public and charter school partners. We will capitalize on House Bill 8 (HB 8) funds to reduce the cost for public and charter school partners to enroll students in dual credit courses.

Courses taught by Alamo Colleges District Faculty
$50/course for students who qualify for FAST $100/course for students who do not qualify for FAST	$0/course for the following highly transfer-applicable courses: ENGL 1301, ENGL 1302, HIST 1301, HIST 1302, and GOVT 2305

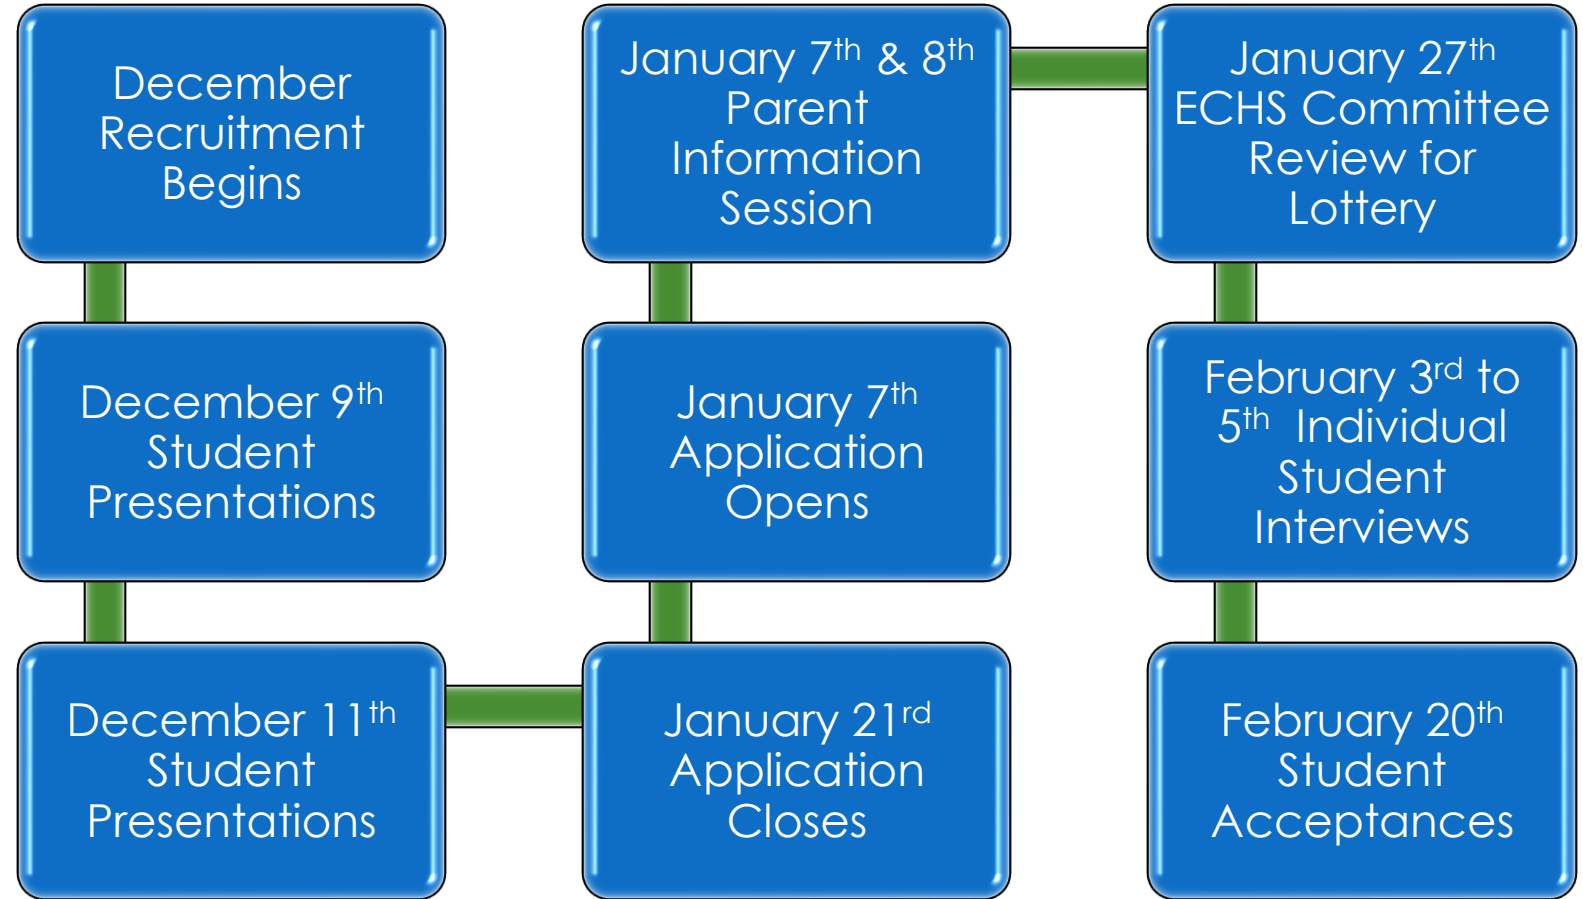

Courses taught by High School Teachers
$1,000 stipend per dual credit section with 15+ students* $600 stipend per dual credit section with 8-14 students* *as of Census Date

Free books through AlamoBOOKS+

All dual credit students receive free textbook and instructional material rentals through our AlamoBOOKS+ program.
