

College Admissions

The SYA Advantage

SYA students find their voices overseas. This self-assurance helps them identify the colleges and universities that will best advance their future goals. Among college admissions officers, SYA students are known to demonstrate maturity, independence, creativity and critical thinking skills.

80% OF ALUMNI AGREE THAT SYA STRENGTHENED THEIR COLLEGE/ UNIVERSITY APPLICATION

Preparing for college from abroad

- Students stay engaged in the college process while at SYA by taking standardized tests, researching schools and drafting application essays.
- Each SYA campus has a dedicated college liaison who helps students develop a preliminary list of schools to discuss with parents and home school counselors before making plans for summer college visits.
- SYA campuses serve as SAT and AP test centers.

“We’re really excited when we see study abroad on an application. It immediately gives us a sense that the student is aware of a larger world and a larger global perspective”.

-Logan Powell, Dean of Admissions, Brown University

93% OF ALUMNI CONTINUED TO STUDY LANGUAGE BEYOND HIGH SCHOOL.

90% STILL CONSIDER THEMSELVES FLUENT.

College Matriculation

SYA alumni have commonly attended the following schools in the last five years. Please visit our website to see the full list of colleges.

- Brown University
- Cornell University
- George Washington University
- Georgetown University
- New York University
- Northeastern University
- Tufts University
- University of California
- University of Chicago
- University of St. Andrews
- University of Pennsylvania
- McGill University
- Stanford University
- Yale University
- Harvard University
- Boston University
- Princeton University

Accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges

Learn more about SYA and college prep at sya.org/admission/college

