Charleston, SC – The Charleston County School District (CCSD) Board of Trustees recognized and thanked outgoing Constituent District 4 Board of Trustees members Lala Fyall and Michael Garnett, who have devoted years of diligent service to the district and its students. Fyall has dedicated over 30 years of service to Charleston County School District, and Garnett has dedicated 20 years to CCSD.

Constituent Boards support the district by hearing student discipline cases, defining attendance zones for neighborhood schools, and overseeing student transfer decisions. They also provide yearly reports to the board of trustees.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is a nationally accredited school district committed to providing equitable and quality educational opportunities for all its students. CCSD is the second-largest school system in South Carolina and represents a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves approximately 50,000 students in 88 schools and specialized programs.

CCSD offers a diverse portfolio of educational options and specialized programs delivered to the students of CCSD through neighborhood, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), Montessori, and charter schools and programs. Rich educational opportunities for students include programs in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM); music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; military; dual credit; and many more.
