

Grant Community High School

Excellence in Education AWARD

Awarded to: Czara Trujillo

Reason Chosen: Czara Trujillo is an exemplary paraprofessional who embodies the mission and values of Grant Community High School through her unwavering dedication, compassion, and hard work. Her contributions to the LOP program and her students have been extraordinary, making a profound impact on their growth and success, and making her the perfect candidate for the Excellence in Education Award.

Czara consistently goes above and beyond in her role, not just as a paraprofessional but as a mentor and advocate. She has built strong, trusting relationships with her students, earning their respect and creating a positive, supportive environment. Her remarkable ability to connect with students is evident in one-on-one classroom interactions and during extracurricular activities such as bowling and Special Olympics.

What sets Czara apart is her innate ability to recognize and respond to the individual needs of each student. She works tirelessly to ensure they have the tools, resources, and emotional support necessary to thrive. Whether helping students stay on top of assignments, assisting with transportation scheduling, or independently ensuring student coverage, Czara always puts her students first.

Czara's professionalism and passion for education extend beyond her daily responsibilities. She takes initiative, steps into leadership roles when needed, and continually seeks to improve outcomes for her students. Her dedication and thoughtful approach have earned the admiration of colleagues and students alike, and her natural talent for teaching signals a bright future as an educator.

For these reasons and many more, Czara is truly deserving of the Excellence in Education Award for her exceptional contributions to Grant Community High School.
