Approval of Minutes

The minutes from the December 19, 2017 meeting were approved.

2018 Legislative Agenda Follow-Up – Linda Welborn and Nora Carr

- Dianne Bellamy Small asked staff, per Dot Kearn’s request, to ensure the High Point League of Women Voters receives guidance on how to best advocate for the district’s 2018 Legislative Agenda.
- Dianne Bellamy Small asked staff to ensure the district’s parent advocacy group receives guidance on advocating for the 2018 Legislative Agenda.
- Committee members will email Nora Carr the names of the community groups they would like Board members to meet with, either at a GCS sponsored meeting or the community group’s regularly scheduled meeting, and share information on the district’s 2018 Legislative Agenda.
- Committee members asked staff to coordinate the meetings with community groups.

Guilford County Legislative Delegation Meeting – Schedule & Plan – Linda Welborn and Pat Tillman

- Pat Tillman will follow up with Representative John Blust, head of the state legislative delegation, about the date for the Guilford County Legislative Delegation luncheon. Pat will share that February 23 works best for Guilford County Schools.
- Once the date for the Guilford County Legislative Delegation luncheon is confirmed, staff will send out a save-the-date notice and organize the luncheon.
- Staff will draft talking points and develop materials to share at the Guilford County Legislative Delegation luncheon.

The next Committee meeting is February 28, 2018.
