Earn your Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Education Endorsement with D11 and UCCS

Please see the flyer for a program overview, coursework,and a more detailed application package information

Logistical Considerations

- Financial support will be offered via Employee Reimbursement
- The program would start in January and end in May of 2026
- Once you finish the program, you could add 2 classes to earn your Masters (on your own; no district reimbursement)
- Informational meeting (virtual) with UCCS on Dec 16, 2024
- To receive the meeting link, please fill out this form: https://forms.gle/iXfyxDUcb8KRfEYM9

What is needed to apply

- $60.00 Graduate School application fee – not reimbursable, and due by Dec. 20th - you do not have to wait for the informational meeting to apply
- 1 reference - only an email address is needed
- Transcripts from any institutions
- Current resume
- Participate in an interview process (to start Jan 6)

What is needed to qualify

- Current teaching license
- Completion of the application package
- Pass the application interview
- Agree to complete the reimbursement process in order for D11 to support UCCS tuition
- Agree to a Memorandum of Understanding between D11 and CLDE