

Billings Public Schools FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

Students enrolled in Billings Public Schools who are experiencing hardship have access to a range of resources, including basic needs and support in connecting to community services.

The BPS Family Resource Center connects students and families in need with the following resources and supports:

- Provide emergency basic needs such as food, clothing, school supplies, and hygiene supplies
- Assistance in navigating school registration, connections to student support programs, and supporting students in school
- Connection to numerous community agencies to support basic needs (housing, food, clothing, transportation, workforce, etc.)
