

Community Music School

at The Ohio State University

go.osu.edu/community-music-school

The Community Music School (CMS) in the School of Music at The Ohio State University offers music instruction to children and adults.

We teach students of all ages with diverse backgrounds, skill levels and educational goals.

Private lessons

Most instruments, composition and conducting

Classes

Pre-school Music • Music Theory • Spoken Word & Rap Video Game Music • New classes added each session.

Ensembles

Community band, choirs, jazz, orchestra • Flute Ensemble
Class and Ensemble offerings vary each session.

Locations

- The new Timashev Family Music Building — Columbus campus
- African American and African Studies Community Extension — 905 Mt. Vernon Ave.
- Music teachers — Contact us about possible offerings at your school

Financial Aid — We offer financial aid based on proof of need.

VISIT: go.osu.edu/community-music-school

EMAIL: CommunityMusicSchool@osu.edu

FOLLOW US

Funding provided by the Office of Academic Affairs/Vice Provost for the Arts

