III. Discussion

Update from Wil Siegel on Parent Opt-In for Social Emotional Screener

Mr. Siegel advised the Committee that the parent opt-in survey for student participation in the social emotional screener was sent out to Middle and High School families in three languages - English, Spanish and Japanese. 38 students were opted in by their parents. The link to the survey will be emailed to students and parents in early December, and the students will have a two week window to respond should they choose to participate. Now that the new Student Privacy policy is being adopted by the Board in December, another opt-out screener will be given to students in the Spring during school.

Update on Policies 0105, 0105-R & 0105-E - Equity, Inclusivity, and Diversity in Education

Discussion was had with regard to the revisions suggested in the draft policy. This policy will be reviewed further.
