Right back where we started from

Mr. Elmer Lawson, in his sixth year as principal, welcomed 867 students to Whitley, August 22. Joining him were the assistant principals, Mr. Sam Lawson and Mr. Phillip Lawson.

Students returning noticed various changes for the school-year. For the first time in its 20 year history, there were no 400 freshmen. They had gone to the Middle School. Also study halls had been eliminated, providing six classes for each student.

Also the students noted a facelift to the library. New arrangement, new tables and chairs provided a more attractive place to study.

We, the staff of THE COLONEL, have presented to you, the reader, this collection, of what we hope will be your favorite Memories. If, in the presentation of this yearbook, we have succeeded in bringing forth from the past memorable thoughts of the happy years at Whitley County High, we can feel that our work has received a well deserved reward.

Hopefully, we will strike the spark of remembrance that will bring back the exciting ballgames, the brain-racking tests, the good times, the crowded halls, the mad runs to lunch, and the fantastic Celebrations after the winning games.

All of us know that Only Time Will Tell what we will be doing years from now, but nothing will ever take our wonderful high school memories away. They will be with us wherever we go. Nothing will Beat It. In behalf of the staff, we want to thank the following people, if not for their patience and help this yearbook would not have been possible.

You've Still Got A Place

June 11, was a special day for two special people. Mrs. Jessie M. Carroll and Mr. Therman Taylor were surprised with a retirement breakfast and gifts from the administration and staff.

THOUGHTS AT RETIREMENT

Words are too inadequate to express my heart's intent
To share my feelings of appreciation for acts of thoughtfulness.

For words of praise and kindness — with love sincere
I feel so extremely happy;
yet, my eyes are filled with tears.

Neither iambus, trochee, anapestest
nor spondee
Can measure my heart's rhythm;
emotions prevent stability.

You see, my potpourri of memories
consists of more than forty years.
Those precious years of making memories
will remain in my mind secure.
For such, is the substance
which makes my life seem dear.
J.M. Carroll

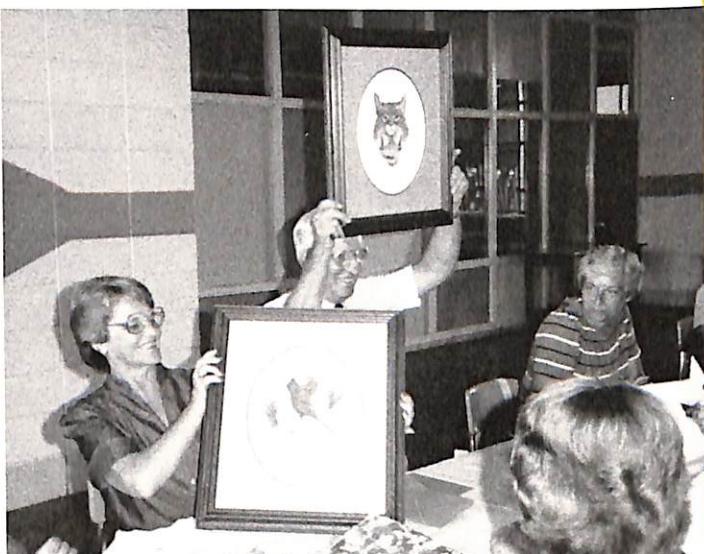

Mr. Taylor had a few words to say.

Mr. Walter K. Reynolds, outstanding teacher.

Time to open gifts.
