2. DANCE CONDUCT

The current style of dancing includes male to female front to back movement. While this may be acceptable in a club-like setting, the Beckman High School ASB has decided this is not acceptable for high school students in a formal setting. Front to back dancing is allowed as long as: Girls do not bend over, put hands on their thighs or raise their dresses in any way, and boys remain a respectful distance from the girls and do not put their hands on the girl's hips. The BHS wristband policy will be in effect. Students receive one warning for inappropriate dancing and lose their wristband; for a second offense they are removed from the dance and a parent is called.
