

Become Your School's Voice...

BECOME EAST'S 1ST POET LAUREATE

What is a High School Poet Laureate?

A High School Poet Laureate is a student appointed to represent the school's literary voice. This prestigious role combines creativity, leadership, and a passion for words to inspire and engage the school community through poetry.

Selected applicants will attend a writing workshop on February 12th and 13th with the North Carolina Poet Laureate, Jaki Shelton Green!

Why Become a Poet Laureate?

- Express Yourself: Use your unique voice to capture the spirit of your school and peers.
- Develop Leadership Skills: Take charge of literary events and inspire others.
- Boost Your College Application: Stand out with this impressive extracurricular achievement.
- Make a Lasting Impact: Leave a poetic legacy that will inspire future students.

Applications Open Jan. 6th
& Close Jan. 17th, 2025
