Seating the New Board Members

Within 21 days following the consolidated election, the district will receive an abstract of votes from the election authority. In most cases, the election authority is the county clerk, but it may be a board of election commissioners. The abstract of votes is an official notification to the district of the election winners. It provides the basis for announcing the new members who will be seated on the board.

The board must seat its new members within 40 days of the consolidated election. If a regular board meeting date falls after receiving the abstract of votes and prior to 40 days following the election, the board may choose to seat its new members at its regular meeting. If no regular meeting falls in that time frame, by law a special meeting must be called.

Before the new board members are seated, outgoing board members may approve the minutes of board meetings that have not yet come up for approval. This action is merely an approval of the record of business already conducted. No business other than seating new members should be transacted by the outgoing board members at the organizational meeting.

Before an individual takes a seat on the board, he or she must take an official oath, administered as determined by the board, in substantially the form as written in the School only to newly elected board members or to all members elected and/or re-elected. To assure compliance, members that are newly elected or appointed and returning by re-ap-appointment and/or re-election should take the oath.

Boards should check their local board policy to determine how the oath is taken. See PRESS Sample Policy 2:80, Board Member Oath and Conduct. School boards may develop whatever process and/or ceremony they choose and include it in board policy. Some options are

- The oath is administered by the board president, the board secretary, the superintendent, or the board's attorney, etc.*
- Each individual taking the oath may read the oath aloud.*
- A group of members or the entire board may take the oath simultaneously.*
