

San Diego State University–Long Beach Unified School District Partnership

Exploring Interest in the Doctorate in Educational Leadership (Ed.D.)

Program Overview

- 60 units over three calendar years, including summer session
- Cohort model with LBUUSD peers
- Estimated costs, based on current tuition rates and 60 units at $7,595/Semester = $60,000
- Classes begin in Summer 2025 (May)
- Financial Aid, typically loans, is available
- Opportunity to clear administrative services credential in parallel with doctoral study

Join our information session with SDSU
Faculty & District Partners

January 8, 2025 @ 7:30 AM

January 8, 2025 @ 4:30 PM

via Zoom

<https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/86822946872>

Program Benefits

- Hybrid program with SDSU instructors visiting strategically for face-to-face interaction
- Evening and/or weekend meetings via Zoom, usually one night a week with occasional Saturday session

Application Information

- Two applications are required.
 - California State University Application
 - Department Application
- Requires transcripts from all universities attended (including earned Master's degree by program start)
- GRE scores are no longer required for admission
- Evidence of NISL completion required

Application Deadlines

Cal State & Department Applications: February 1, 2025

Official Transcripts: February 15, 2025

Application Website

<https://education.sdsu.edu/admissions/graduate-admissions/edd-edl-pk12-application>

For more information...

Please direct prospective student inquiries to Ms. Corrigan

James Marshall, Ph.D. (marshall@sdsu.edu), PK-12 Ed.D. Program Senior Director

Greg Ottinger, Ed.D. (gottinger@sdsu.edu), PK-12 Ed.D. Program Co-Director

Dalia Corrigan (cdalia@sdsu.edu), PK-12 Ed.D. Program Coordinator

Transform
Your
Tomorrow

LONG BEACH
UNIFIED • SCHOOL • DISTRICT

SDSU

College of Education
Department of Educational Leadership