November Weekly Vinal Voice

Week of Monday, October 28 - Friday, November 1, 2024.

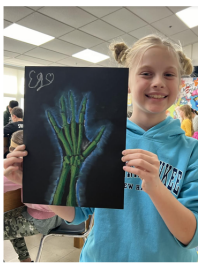

Principal's Update

We had another busy week last week with many different fall celebrations happening throughout the building, the kickoff to Vinal Student Government Elections, and a brief performance of Guys & Dolls from the Norwell High School Fourth Wall Performers! Student Government elections will happen this week, and there is NO school tomorrow due to Election Day!

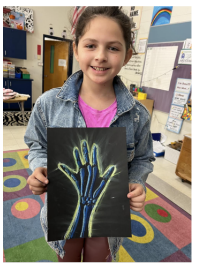

Attendance

Supporting regular and punctual school attendance is instrumental in providing a positive learning experience for students. A student who misses more than half of the instructional time in a school day is considered absent. Additionally, a student that has missed 10 percent or more of the school year is considered chronically absent (equivalent to 18 days a year, 2 days every month) for any reason including excused and unexcused absences.

Norwell High Fourth Wall Players

Please join the NHS Fourth Wall Players for their first show of the season! Guys and Dolls is musical comedy about big city gamblers and the women who love them. It intertwines the tales of high-roller Sky Masterson, who falls for mission worker Sarah Brown, and the charming Nathan Detroit, who has been engaged to Miss Adelaide, a headliner at the Hot Box Club, for 14 years. Nathan is known for running a famous floating crap game, and much of the plot revolves around his search for a safe location for the game while Adelaide persistently tries to convince him to marry her. Meanwhile, Sarah, mistakenly believing that Sky organized an illegal game at the mission, struggles with her growing affection for the charismatic gambler.

Praised by TIME Magazine as “the greatest of all American musicals!” and hailed by The New York Times as “the show that defines Broadway dazzle,” this musical fable of Broadway promises an unforgettable evening at the theatre. Guys and Dolls is rated PG for mild adult humor. Run time is approximately 2 hours 15 mins, which includes an intermission. This is an upbeat musical comedy that everyone can enjoy.
