

Work After Retirement for General Service

Do I have a limit on my hours?

Effective January 1, 2020

This is general information to help explain Senate Bill 1049 changes around Work After Retirement and may not reflect your personal situation.

*Generally, if you retired at or after "normal retirement age" or with 30 years of service, there are no limitations on the number of hours you can work if you are employed by a PERS-participating employer as a PERS retiree in calendar years 2020-2024.
