Questions and Answers:

1. Question: If a specific ISBN is not available, but there is a direct sub, meaning same title, but different ISBN/binding, do we still need to submit a substitution form and a sample?

   Answer: If it is the same title but different binding, please submit that information with your bid in column G (title/isbn/binding). If the title is different, please complete the substitution request form for review.

2. Question: Will we receive individual PO's for each school or one PO for the District?

   Answer: The awarded vendor(s) will receive PO's per school site.

3. Question: If PO's are delayed, will there be an extension of the delivery deadline?

   Answer: No, we do not anticipate delays with the PO's.

4. Question: Are the quantities on the bid a total for the whole District or could more copies be requested of any given title?

   Answer: The quantities listed are for the elementary school sites within the District. Contingent upon funding, additional quantities may be ordered.

5. Question: Are the books required to be labeled?

   Answer: No.

6. Question: Are the books required to be boxed or sorted into classroom sets or grade-level sets?

   Answer: The District requests ALL orders ship 100% complete per school site.

7. Question: Can you clarify the number items required under the SOW? Are you looking for 33 sets of books in total, or are you looking for a set of books for each classroom in 33 separate schools?

   Answer: Please see the bid form with the total number of books requested. 33 school sites will place orders utilizing this bid in various quantities.

8. Question: Can we get a copy of last year bid tabulation sheet for these products?

   Answer: This is the first year requesting classroom read aloud books.

9. Question: Does the bid process also require delivery?

   Answer: Yes, the unit cost of the book must include delivery. Additional costs for shipping will not be accepted.
