UPPER MERION AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT PROFESSIONAL SUPERVISION AND EVALUATION PLAN 2017-2018

Years of research have proven that nothing schools can do for their students matters more than giving them effective teachers. A few years with effective teachers can put even the most disadvantaged students on the path to college. A few years with ineffective teachers can deal students an academic blow from which they may never recover.

*Jordan, Mendro, and Weerasinghe, The Effects of Teachers on Longitudinal Student Achievement, 1997

Mission Statement: The mission of the Upper Merion Area School District is to inspire excellence...in every student, every day.

Danielson Framework for Teaching:

Differentiated Supervision: The Pennsylvania Department of Education explains differentiated supervision in the following manner:

“Differentiated Supervision recognizes the level of experience, the effectiveness, and professionalism of teachers as well as the intensity and time commitment to Formal Observation. In Differentiated Supervision, professional employees develop an action plan for professional development unique to their needs and interests.”

Goal: As educators, we believe differentiated instruction to be valuable; therefore, as reflective learners our goal is to examine and engage in varied modes for professional growth to improve our practice and student achievement.

Modes:

- Formal Observation: The formal observation mode enables a teacher to work with his/her supervisor for the purpose of improving the teaching/learning environment by focusing on pedagogy, methodologies, resources, and techniques using the Danielson Framework for Teaching. Working through a collaborative process, a teacher and supervisor can foster a climate to bring instructional improvement. This mode includes a pre-observation conference, a formal observation, and a post-observation conference.
- Peer Coaching: Peer coaching (collegial consultation) enables a teacher to collaborate with a colleague in a clinical setting to examine and refine present skills, analyze and seek solutions for classroom-related problems and enhance professional performance through reflective practice. This mode builds bridges between colleagues and classrooms, capitalizes on sharing the talent and expertise of a diverse faculty and encourages teachers to take risks in a non-threatening manner. The teachers identify the areas of study and then together conduct a series of pre-conferences, observations, and post-conferences. The process is designed to improve instruction and student achievement by shared analysis of lesson planning, details of the lesson, observational data and feedback.

- Portfolio: Professional employees will examine their own practice in relation to the Danielson Framework for Teaching and reflect in a written report and/or documented discussions. Portfolios will be developed according to criteria established by Upper Merion Area School District with a basis in teacher interests or professional needs. Resources, artifacts, data collection tools, and the results of the reflective sessions will be shared with the principal and used as evidence in the supervision and evaluation of the employee. Portfolios can be submitted in binder form or electronically.
- Self-Directed/Team-Directed Learning: Teachers will develop a structured on-going reflection of a practice-related issue, based on the Danielson Framework. Teachers may work individually or in small groups (limit of three teachers/groups), to complete the project. Teachers will propose a goal for investigation. A plan for that investigation will be submitted, based on knowledge gained, along with desired outcomes, leading to a final reflection.

Cycle of Supervision: Three-Year Cycle

Employees to Complete Required Formal Observation Mode:

Temporary professional employees
Professional employees new to district (Tenured professional employees in their first year in the district)
Employees assigned to their required year of Formal Observation
Employees assigned to a performance improvement plan

Employees to participate in Differentiated Supervision:

Professional employees should be assigned to Differentiated Supervision Modes for the length of the Cycle of Supervision except for the required year of Formal Observation (e.g., the district has a three-year Cycle of Supervision and a teacher is assigned to the Formal Observation Model in the second year of the cycle, the teacher will be placed in the Differentiated Supervision modes in years one and three of the cycle).

FORMAL OBSERVATION MODE

Formal Observation Description: The intended purpose of the Upper Merion Area School District Evaluation Process is to assess the teacher's performance in relation to the Pennsylvania Department of Education Educator Effectiveness Rating Tool and to design a plan for professional growth. The principal or a designee (hereinafter "observer") will conduct the evaluation process in which the teacher will actively participate through the use of self- assessment, reflection, presentation of artifacts, and classroom demonstration(s).

The Upper Merion Area School District Formal Observation mode shall include the following components:

Training: Before participating in the formal observation process, teachers will complete training on the evaluation process.

Orientation: Within two weeks of a teacher's first day of work in any school year, the principal will provide the teacher with a copy of or directions for obtaining access to a copy of:

- A. The Danielson Framework for Teaching 2013 version.
- B. The UMASD Teacher Evaluation Tool and Procedures Handbook.
- C. Copy of PDE Title 22 – Education – Rules and Regulations
- D. A schedule for completing all the components of the evaluation process.

(Copies may be provided by electronic means.)

Pre-Observation Conference: Before the first formal observation, the observer shall meet with the teacher to discuss the teacher's self- assessment based on the Framework Rubrics for Domains 1/4 and the lesson(s) to be observed. The teacher will provide the observer with a written description of the lesson(s) to be observed and the completed Pre-/Post- sheets two days in advance of the pre-observation conference. The goal of this conference is to prepare the observer for the observation.

Observations:

- A. A formal observation shall last at least forty minutes or an entire class period.
- B. Non-tenured Teachers - The principal shall conduct at least two formal observations of all non-tenured teachers.
- C. Tenured Teachers - Tenured teachers shall be evaluated annually.
- D. Observer should hand in their observation notes to the teacher within two days of the formal observation.

UMASD Professional Supervision and Evaluation Plan 2017-2018

Teacher Self-Assessment: Using the Danielson Framework Rubrics, the teacher shall rate his or her own performance and review the observer's information.

Post-Observation Conference: The observer shall conduct a post-observation conference no later than three school days after each formal observation. During the post-observation conference, the observer and teacher shall discuss and document on the Rubric the strengths and weaknesses of the teacher's performance during the observed lesson.

Summary Evaluation Conference and Scoring the Teacher Summary Rating Form (PDE 82-1/PDE 82-2): Prior to the end of the school year and in accordance with LEA timelines, the principal shall conduct a summary evaluation conference with the teacher. During the summary evaluation conference, the principal and teacher shall discuss the teacher's self- assessment and the components of the UMASD Evaluation Process completed during the year, classroom observations, artifacts submitted or collected during the evaluation process and other evidence of the teacher's performance on the Rubric. The PDE 82-1 or PDE 82-2 form will be completed by the observer and submitted to the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

PEER COACHING MODE

Peer Coaching: The Pennsylvania Department of Education defines the Peer Coaching Mode for Differentiated Supervision as:

“professional employees work in dyads or triads to discuss and observe their own or another professional employee's pedagogy, student learning, curriculum aligned to the Pennsylvania Core Standards and other pertinent issues in a collaborative manner. The professionals will work together to define their professional needs and develop plans to assist them in the successful completion of the identified tasks including: specific target area(s), the evidence to be collected, observation dates, and a reflective session. Meeting notes, data collection tools, results of the observations, and the reflective sessions should be shared with the principal and used as evidence in the supervision and evaluation of the employee.”

Peer Coaching Description: Peer coaching (collegial consultation) enables a teacher to collaborate with a colleague in a clinical setting to examine and refine present skills, analyze and seek solutions for classroom-related problems and enhance professional performance through reflective practice. This mode builds bridges between colleagues and classrooms, capitalizes on sharing the talent and expertise of a diverse faculty and encourages teachers to take risks in a non-threatening manner. The teachers identify the areas of study and then together conduct a series of pre-conferences, observations, and post-conferences. The process is designed to improve instruction and student achievement by shared analysis of lesson planning, details of the lesson, observational data and feedback.

Training Required: Teachers who elect to use this mode will participate in district training in reflective practices during their August in-service.

Components:

- Teachers work in dyads or triads (triads are defined as teachers working in a co-teaching classroom/s)
- Teachers meet in a confidential, trusting manner to record, share and analyze objective data
- Goals include one competency from each of the four domains (Planning and Preparation, Classroom Environment, Instruction and Professional Responsibilities) with self-collected observable data
- Teachers make decisions about future instruction and learning based on the analysis of the data
- Artifacts reflect progress made toward goals
- Consultations are collaborative and constructive (not evaluative)

UMASD Professional Supervision and Evaluation Plan 2017-2018

Process:

- Teachers will complete at least 3 cycles (per professional) of collegial consultations throughout the year (each cycle includes a pre-coaching conference, observation, and post-coaching conference)
- Options for classroom observations include live and/or video-taped lessons
- Teachers record objective data, share, and analyze that data with each other in a confidential manner.
- The pair or team of teachers will meet its immediate supervisor at the beginning of the year, mid-year, and end of the year to report progress towards the goals of the action plan.
- Each teacher will submit a self-reflection aligned with the identified domain at the end of the coaching year.
- Each teacher is responsible for completing the Peer Coaching Action Plan. The Summative Peer Coaching Narratives will be attached to the teacher's signed evaluation.

SELF-DIRECTED/TEAM-DIRECTED LEARNING MODE

Self-Directed/Team-Directed Learning Description: Teachers will develop a structured on-going reflection of a practice-related issue, based on the Danielson Framework. Teachers may work individually or in pair/triad, to complete the project. Teachers will propose a goal for investigation. A plan for that investigation will be submitted, based on knowledge gained, along with desired outcomes, leading to a final reflection.

Process: Goal setting is an essential component of both Self-directed and Team-directed models. Teachers in the Differentiated Mode will identify a domain and component on which to focus their professional growth to best impact student achievement. This focus should be an area of need for a teacher or team and result in a goal(s) that are specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, and timely.

Suggested project themes might include:

- Literacy
- Blended/Flipped Classroom
- Integrating Technology
- Effective Instructional Practices
- Differentiated Instruction
- Assessment Literacy
- Inclusion/Co-teaching

Characteristics of Self-directed/Team-Directed Learning

Gaining new knowledge: A teacher's goal may include the implementation of researched-based ideas or instructional strategies that are new to his/her practice.

Refining knowledge: A teacher's goal may include the use of the district training and resources already provided to improve his/her classroom use of these strategies to increase student achievement.

Creating knowledge: A teacher's goal may include application of training and knowledge to create something new for their profession and/or their students.

Goal statement: Write a SMART goal that is specific, measureable, attainable, realistic, and timely. Reflect on the past. Identify an existing need or area for improvement to focus on.

Rationale for Goal: Why are you picking this goal? Why is this goal important for your practice? Why is this goal important for the students?

Desired Outcome: What do you want to be able to observe when you are done? How will you know if you were successful?

Steps for achieving desired outcome and plan for evidence collection: What are you reading to prompt your thinking? Who are you talking to prompt your thinking? What are the checkpoints along the way that you will need to observe/measure? What resources/supports will you need to achieve your goal?
