KHS School Counseling Announces a night for Post-Secondary High School Planning on Thursday, October 17th 6PM-7PM.

The Killingly High School Counseling staff invites parents and students to join us for a presentation on post-high school planning, including navigating the college application process. This presentation is geared toward parents and guardians of seniors and juniors but is open to anyone interested in learning about applying to four-year colleges, the programs at CT State Community College (QVCC), and other options after graduation. Members of the Killingly High School Counseling Department will present, as well as Amanda Giles from QVCC and Kathleen Stango from the Admissions Office at UConn. We hope to see you there!

What: Post-Secondary Planning Presentation

Who: Parents/Guardians of KHS Students

Where: KHS Library Media Center

When: Thursday, October 17th from 6pm - 7:30pm
