Introduction

At SSIS we encourage our school community to participate in a personal wellness program. Self-care is a critical piece to wellness in which we participate by making healthy lifestyle choices which contribute to mental and physical health and overall well-being. On this site you will find resources to assist you in creating and maintaining wellness, positive and healthy living.

At SSIS we Care about Community

Our team of specialists at SSIS are dedicated to providing our community with the information and tools for empowering their families as well as micro and macro community. Please explore our SSIS presentations for a range of resources and expert advice.
