Child Find Notice

It is the responsibility of the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District to identify any child who may have a disability and is a resident of Dudley-Charlton. This also includes students who are homeschooled.

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District is also responsible for the evaluation of those students to determine if they are eligible for special education or related services under Federal law, IDEA (Individuals with Disabilities Education Act) or, Massachusetts State Law, 603 CMR 28 (Massachusetts Special Education Regulations).

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District is also committed to identifying children before their third birthday in order to provide early intervention services for three and four year-olds with disabilities. If you have questions or concerns regarding your child's development and would like to have him/her screened, please call 508-248-7774 to set up an appointment.

If you suspect that your child, at any age, may need an evaluation to determine eligibility for special education services, you may request an evaluation, at no cost, through the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District. Please contact us at the following:
