A purposeful culminating activity will take place during final exams (ex. aligned project, exam, portfolio completion, etc.) There are no exemptions for finals and semester exams.

- All students must attend their classes.
- Study hall students do not need to report to that class period. Students that have study halls and are present will need to report to the Thune Center.
- Students are expected to attend Resource (special education). If a parent elects to excuse a student by calling into attendance, they are entitled to do so.
- Innovative Learning Lab - if they have not turned in their work to obtain the credit, they need to report to complete the work. If they have earned their credit and are passing all other classes, they will need their guardian to excuse them.
- Cafeteria breakfast and lunch will be served on Tuesday (1/14) and Wednesday (1/15)
- Breakfast and a snack will be served on Thursday (1/16)
- Outbound buses will pick up at 12:20 pm (Tuesday and Wednesday) & 10:40 am (Thursday)
- We expect students to be on time for their success.
 - If students are later than 15 minutes they will be escorted to their scheduled exam room quietly by an adult.
 - If a student is in the building prior to their exam, the Thune Center will be available.
- Students stay in classrooms the entire testing period. Students will not be dismissed during the exam period. The instructor is responsible for their rostered students the entire exam time. If a student is in need of a laptop, please call the LMC and one will be delivered.
