

Gender-Based Violence, Discrimination, and Harassment

Title IX Jurisdiction Chart

Summary: This process outlines Two Roads' jurisdiction over Title IX complaints. Substantial Context Control is defined as: Substantial Control over Accused is defined as: Signed Complaint On campus: In or during online class
 Off campus location owned or 1) Current Student Received 2) Current Employee controlled by School District 3) Off campus, school sponsored event Is the Complainant a Student or Staff Member (or attempting to Not Title IX Yes No Must Dismiss Does the District have SUBSTANTIAL CONTROL over Not Title IX Accused Must Dismiss (Student or Employee) Refer to Police or outside agency if Yes needed Does the District have SUBSTANTIAL Not Title IX CONTROL over the CONTEXT in which Must Dismiss the Sexual Harassment occured Refer to Police, outside agency, or to student discipline if needed Is the harassment severe, pervasive,
AND objectionably offensive it Does it Qualify as a Title IX? denies the education of another, or Behavior defined under the Cleary Act. Any incident of Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Jeffco may choose Violence, Rape, Incest, Stalking, or Employee related Quid pro Quo The complainant If the accused is no withdraws complaint or longer enrolled in prevent the District from allegations collecting evidence Jeffco schools No Qualifies as Title IX Not Title IX Refer to Student Open Formal Title IX Discipline or Investigation or