

MIDDLE SCHOOL HOOPSTERS DOMINANT IN DOUBLEHEADER SWEEP OF DECATUR COUNTY

By Ron Barry

Not even a long Christmas break can slow down the red-hot Crockett County Middle School Lady Cavaliers.

Coach Jamar Turner's hoopsters routed Decatur County in Parsons 57-10 Monday night, extending their current winning streak to 14 games and boosting their overall season record to 16-3.

Jentry Maddox tossed in eight points and Ruth Gourley added five as Crockett jumped out to a 19-6 first-quarter advantage. Maddox then connected for 12 more as the Lady Cavs blistered Decatur County 23-0 in the second period.

Nine different Crockett players entered the scoring column for the winners, paced by the 22-point performance from Maddox. Addie Whitby contributed 10, Gourley seven, and Khyllie Cobb and Lillian Ray four apiece.

In the boys contest that followed, Coach Tyler Gadlen's Cavs posted a 41-22 triumph as Jeremiah Young netted 19 points. Crockett leaped to a 25-4 lead by the halftime intermission and never looked back, boosting its season record to 9-10.

Brody Haley supported Young's offensive effort with nine points, while Will Dodds had eight.

Both CCMS teams will host their homecoming events and eighth-grade night when Gibson County visits Alamo. It will be the final home game of the season for CCMS.
